STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

No accurate figures exist for the number of domestic workers employed in Pakistani households, but the figure is certainly in the hundreds of thousands if not the millions. Domestic work provides many Pakistanis with the opportunity to earn an honest living, but the conditions under which these men and women work are highly variable. There is a need to ensure that these domestic workers are provided at least a minimum level of benefits and facilities. Furthermore there is a need to regulate their terms and conditions of employment to ensure that they are treated with respect and dignity, while ensuring that excessive regulation does not create an impediment to the hiring of such workers. The present Bill is being moved in pursuance of these objectives.
