SUMMARY

The Bill emphasizes on the Constitutional provision pertaining to 'Principles of State Policy' Section 38(a) that provides for equitable adjustment of rights between landlord and tenants. To meet the concerns of tenants and landlord surfaced from time to time in the Federal Capital, the Bill has been moved. It provides that every agreement between landlord and tenant shall be presented before the Controller for record keeping. It also makes mandatory for the tenants that all transactions be made through cross cheque or with an official receipt or acknowledgement. For dispute resolution, there shall be a Mediation Council to be presented by the President Islamabad Chamber of Commerce or his nominee as its Convener. One representative of tenant and one of the landlord will be the member of the Mediation Council. In case of non-settlement, the Controller shall proceed with the case. In case of a settlement, the order passed by the Controller in accordance with the decision of the Mediation Council shall be considered final.

The Mover remained absent in meeting held on 18th April, 2017, therefore the Standing Committee dropped and not passed the Bill.

RECOMMENDATION

The Committee disposed of the Bill with the recommendation that the Bill may not be passed. The Bill is annexed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

It is pertinent that our Constitution under its chapter: 'Principles of State Policy', Section 38 (a) lays down for mandatory equitable adjustment of relations between landlords and tenants. There is a decade old demand of tenants and landlords in the Federal Capital to have the Islamabad Rent Restriction Ordinance, 2001 amended to meet their concerns. The amended bill entails that every agreement between the landlord and tenant shall be presented before the Controller for record keeping. Any payments related to the tenancy agreement shall be made through cross cheques or with an official receipt or acknowledgement. The rents of residential and non-residential buildings shall be annually increased by ten percent automatically unless the parties decide to the contrary in writing. For dispute resolution between the landlord and tenant there shall be a mediation council to be presided by the President Islamabad Chamber of Commerce or his nominee as its Convener. A representative of the tenant and the landlord will both constitute as members of the council. The Controller, before proceeding with a case shall refer it to the Mediation Council. In case of non-settlement, the Controller shall proceed with the case. In case of a settlement, the order passed by the Controller in accordance with the decision of the Mediation Council shall be considered final.

The Bill is designed to meet the aforesaid objectives.
