5. Act not to be derogatory to any other law.- The provisions of this Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other law for the time being in force.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Besides having religious importance for the Muslims Arabic is among the five largest spoken languages of the world. A large number of population from around the world seeks to do business and employment in the rich Arab states. Thus knowledge of Arabic language will not only enlighten the understanding of Islam and the message of Holy Quran it will also broaden the employment and business opportunities for the citizens of Pakistan as well.

This Bill will make teaching of Arabic compulsory to the students of all educational institutions both in public and private sector in Islamabad Capital Territory (ICT), also the institutions owned and controlled by the Federal Government wherever they may be and all educational institutions affiliated with the Federal Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Islamabad. It will help the students to understand the divine message enshrined in Holy Quran and also the Hadith of the Holy Prophet ﷺ besides widening their employment and business opportunities in the future.
