"Provided that where the assessee produces books of account as evidence in support of the return, the Deputy Commissioner shall, before disagreeing with such accounts, give a notice to the assessee of the defects in the accounts and provide an opportunity to the assessee to explain his point of view about such defects and record such explanation and the basis of computation of total income of the assessee in the assessment order,";

- (12) in section 80CC, after sub-section (3), the following new sub-sections shall be added, namely:—

"(4) Where an assessee, while explaining the nature and source of any sum, investment, money, valuable article, excess amount or expenditure, referred to in section 13, takes into account any source of income which is subject to tax in accordance with the provisions of this section, he shall not be entitled to credit of any sum as is in excess of an amount which if taxed at a rate or rates, other than the rate applicable to income chargeable to tax under this section, would have resulted in tax liability equal to the tax payable in respect of income under this section.

(5) For the purpose of determining the share of a partner of a firm out of such income of the firm as is determined under this section, the income of the firm shall be taken to be an amount which if taxed at the rate or rates, other than the rate applicable to income chargeable to tax under this section, would have resulted in tax liability equal to the tax payable in respect of income under this section.

(6) In a case to which sub-section (3) applies, an order under section 59A shall be deemed to have been made in respect of income referred to in sub-section (1).";

- (13) after Chapter XIII the following new chapter shall be inserted, namely:—

“CHAPTER XIII A

SETTLEMENT OF CASES

138A. Income Tax Settlement Commission.—(1) The Federal Government shall appoint an Income Tax Settlement Commission to exercise the powers and discharge the functions conferred on it under this Chapter.

(2) The Commission shall consist of a Chairman and as many members as may be necessary and shall function within the Division of the Federal Government dealing with revenue.

(3) The members of the Commission shall be appointed by the Federal Government from amongst persons of integrity and outstanding ability having special knowledge of, and experience in, matters relating to income tax law and accounts.

(4) The Federal Government shall ordinarily appoint the senior most member of the Commission to be the Chairman thereof.

138B. Definitions.—In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (i) “case” means any proceedings under this Ordinance for the assessment, including additional assessment, appeal or revision in connection with such proceedings, of any person in respect of any year or years, which may be pending before an income tax authority, Income Tax Appellate Tribunal or any court on the date of making the application under sub-section (1) of section 138D:

Provided that where any appeal or application for revision or reference has been filed after the period of limitation and which has not been admitted, such appeal, application for revision or reference shall not be deemed to be a proceeding pending within the meaning of this clause:

- (ii) "Chairman" means the chairman of the Commission;
- (iii) "member" means a member of the Commission, and includes the Chairman thereof; and
- (iv) "Commission" means the Income Tax Settlement Commission appointed under section 138A.

138C. Powers and functions of the Commission.—(1) The powers and functions of the Commission may be exercised and discharged by benches constituted from amongst members of the Commission by the Chairman.

(2) A bench shall ordinarily consist of two members and shall be presided over by the Chairman:

Provided that, where the Chairman is not a member of the bench, the Chairman may authorise any member to discharge the functions of the Chairman.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Commission shall have power to regulate its own procedure, and the procedure of benches in all matters arising out of the discharge of its functions, including the places at which the benches shall hold their sittings.

(4) If the members of a bench differ in opinion as to the decision to be given on any point,—

- (a) the point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority, if there is a majority;
- (b) if the members are equally divided and the Chairman of the Commission is not himself a member of the bench, the case shall be referred to the Chairman and the decision of the Commission shall be expressed in terms of the opinion of the Chairman; and

- (c) if the members are equally divided and the Chairman of the Commission is himself a member of the bench, the opinion of the Chairman shall prevail and the decision of the Commission shall be expressed in terms of the opinion of the Chairman.

(5) In addition to powers conferred on the Commission under this Chapter, it shall have all the powers which are vested in an income tax authority under this Ordinance.

138D. Application for settlement of cases.—(1) An assessee may, at any stage of his case, make an application in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, containing full and true disclosure of his income which he may not have disclosed before the assessing officer, the manner in which such income has been derived, the additional amount of income tax payable on such income and such other particulars as may be prescribed, to the Commission to have the case settled and any such application shall be disposed of in the manner provided hereinafter:

Provided that no such application shall be made unless the assessee has filed the return of income which he was or is required to furnish under the Ordinance and the income tax payable on the basis of such return exceeds fifty thousand rupees:

Provided further that if such case is pending with any appellate or revisional authority or any court, application to the Commission shall not lie unless the applicant withdraws that case and waives his right of appeal or revision, as the case may be.

(2) Every application made under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed by the Commission.

(3) An assessee once having made an application under sub-section (1) shall not be entitled to withdraw it.

138E. Disposal of applications by the Commission.—(1) The Commission may, before disposing of any application, call for such particulars as it may require in respect of the case in the application brought before it or cause further enquiries to be made by the Commissioner and on the basis of his report and having regard to the nature and circumstances of the case, the Commission may, by order, allow the application to be proceeded with or reject the application:

Provided that an application shall not be rejected under this sub-section unless an opportunity has been given to the applicant of being heard.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), an application shall not be proceeded with under that sub-section if the Commissioner objects to such application on the ground that concealment of particulars of income on the part of the applicant or perpetration of fraud by him for evading any tax under this Ordinance, has been established or is likely to be established by any income tax authority:

Provided that where the Commission does not agree with the objections raised by the Commissioner, it may, after giving the Commissioner an opportunity of being heard, accept the application for being proceeded with under sub-section (1).

(3) Where an application is allowed to be proceeded with under sub-section (1), the Commission may call for the relevant records from the Commissioner and after examination of such records, if the Commission is of the opinion that any further inquiry in the matter is necessary, it may direct the Commissioner to make or cause to be made such further enquiry and furnish a report on the matters within such time as it may fix.

(4) After examination of the records and the report of the Commissioner received under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3), and after giving an opportunity to the applicant and to the Commissioner to be heard, in person or through their authorised representatives and after examining such further evidence as may be placed before it or obtained by it, the Commission may, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, pass such order as it thinks fit on the matters enumerated in the application and reported to it by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3).

(5) Every order passed under sub-section (4) shall provide for the terms of settlement including any demand of tax, penalty or interest, the manner in which any sum due under the settlement shall be paid and all other matters to make the settlement effective and shall also provide that the settlement shall be void if it is subsequently found by the Commission that it has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation.

(6) Where a settlement becomes void the proceedings with respect to the matters relating to the settlement, shall be revived from the stage at which the application was allowed except a matter pending in appeal or revision before making an application under sub-section (1) of section 138D, to be proceeded with and the concerned income tax authority may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Ordinance, complete such proceedings within two years from the end of the financial year in which the settlement became void.

(7) The Commission may, if it is of the opinion that any person who made an application under section 138D does not cooperate with the Commission in the proceedings before it, send the case back to the assessing officer, if such case was pending for assessment at the time application under that section was made, who shall thereupon dispose of the case in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance as if no application under section 138D had been made.

138F. Recovery of sums due under order of settlement.—Any sum specified in an order of settlement passed under sub-section (4) of section 138E shall, subject to such conditions as may be specified therein, be recovered, and any penalty for default in making payment of such sum may be imposed and recovered in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance by the Deputy Commissioner having jurisdiction in the case.

138G. Bar on subsequent application for settlement in certain cases.—Where—

- (i) an order of the settlement passed under section 138E provides for the imposition of a penalty on the person on the ground of concealment of particulars of his income, or
- (ii) a person is convicted of any offence under Chapter XII in pursuance of settlement of a case; or
- (iii) a case is sent back to the Deputy Commissioner by the Commission for assessment or reassessment for any reason or where the settlement becomes void under this Chapter, any fresh application for settlement shall not be admissible.

138H. Order of Settlement to be conclusive.—Every order of the Commission passed under section 138E shall be conclusive as to the matters stated therein and no matter covered by such order shall, save as otherwise provided in this Chapter be re-opened in any proceeding under this Ordinance or under any law for the time being in force.

138I. Power of commission to re-open proceedings.—If Commission is, for reasons to be recorded in writing, of the opinion that for the proper disposal of the case pending before it, it is essential to re-open any proceedings connected with the case but which have been completed under this Ordinance by any income tax authority before the application under section 138D was made, it may, with the concurrence of the applicant, reopen such proceedings and pass such order thereon as it thinks fit, as if the case in relation to which the application for settlement had been made by the applicant under that section covered such proceedings as well:

Provided that no proceedings shall be re-opened by the Commission under this section if the period between the end of the assessment year to which such proceedings relate and the date of application for settlement under section 138D exceeds five years.

138J. Proceedings before Commission to be judicial proceeding.—Any proceedings before the Commission shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 and for the purposes of section 196 of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860).

138K. Communications of orders.—The Commission shall communicate its order to the applicant, the Deputy Commissioner and the Commissioner.”.

- (14) in section 157, in sub-section (2), in clause (c), for the words “Income Tax Officer” the words “Assistant Commissioner of Income Tax” shall be substituted;

(15) in the First Schedule, in Part I,—

(a) for paragraph A the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"A. In the case of every individual, unregistered firm, association of persons, Hindu undivided family and artificial juridical person referred to in clause (32) of section 2, not being a case to which paragraph B of this part applies the income tax shall be charged on the total income, excluding income to which sections 80B, 80C and 80CC apply, at the following rates:—
