7. Amendment of Schedule, Act X of 1994.- In the said Act, in the Schedule, for the word "Maritime", the words "Pakistan Maritime" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

- a. Maritime Security Agency (MSA) is an attached department of Ministry of Defence to enforce national laws and international agreements on and under Water in the Maritime Zones of Pakistan.
- b. The draft Bill will enable the Maritime Security Agency (MSA) to be called as Pakistan Maritime Security Agency (PMSA). Thus, conveying/facilitating its recognition as a Law Enforcement Agency (LEA).
- c. The main objective of the change is to establish identity of the agency as a national government organization both at national and international levels.
- d. Other countries are following similar practice/designation e.g. US Coast Guard, Indian Coast Guard, and Sri Lankan Coast Guard.
- e. The change in nomenclature will be brought through a change/amendment in Act of Parliament 1994.

The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objectives.

SYED NAVEED QAMAR,
Minister for Defence,
Member-in-Charge.
