(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), of 11000, if any public servant is found negligent in complying with the provisions of sub-section (1), such public servant shall be proceeded against under respective service rules for administrative action.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Anti-Terrorism Act (ATA), 1997, though comprehensive in its scope, lacks certain provisions in relation to the implementation of United Nations Security Council Resolutions (UNSCRs) 1267 and 1373. The UNSCRs 1267 and 1373 were adopted under Article 41 of Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter making them obligatory for all members of the United Nations. Through UNSCR 1267, member states of the United Nations implement the sanctions measures of assets freeze (targeted financial sanctions), arms embargo and travel ban on the entities and individuals who are designated on the sanctions list. UNSCR 1373 requires member states to implement counter terrorism measures, especially countering the financing of terrorism through their domestic laws. The above obligation is implemented in Pakistan through Anti-Terrorism Act, 1997. The penalties already provided in the said Act are not dissuasive for violations of assets seizure provision in section 11-O and the provided amount of fine is insufficient. .
