INTERNATIONAL REGISTRATION OF TRADE MARKS

92A. International registration under Madrid Protocol.—The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to international applications and international registrations under the Madrid Protocol.

92B. Definitions.—In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (i) “application”, in relation to a contracting state or a contracting organization, means an application made by a person who is a citizen of, or is domiciled in, or has a real and effective industrial or commercial establishment in, that contracting state or a state which is a member of that contracting organization, as the case may be.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this clause, “real and effective industrial or commercial establishment” means and includes any establishment where some bona fide industrial or commercial activity takes place and need not necessarily be the principal place of business;

- (ii) "basic application" means an application for the registration of a trade mark filed under section 22 and which is used as a basis for applying for an international registration;
- (iii) "basic registration" means the registration of a trade mark under section 33 and which is used as a basis for applying for an international registration;
- (iv) "common regulations" means the Common Regulations under the Madrid Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Marks and the Protocol Relating to that Agreement;
- (v) "contracting organization" means a contracting party that is an inter-governmental organization;
- (vi) "contracting party" means a contracting state or contracting organization party to the Madrid Protocol;
- (vii) "contracting state" means a country party to the Madrid Protocol;
- (viii) "designation", with its grammatical variations, is a request for the extension of protection under Article 3ter(1) or (2) of the Madrid Protocol, as the case may be; it also means such extension as recorded in the International Register;
- (ix) "designated contracting party" is a Contracting Party for which the extension of protection has been requested under Article 3ter(1) or (2) of the Madrid Protocol, as the case may be, or in respect of which such extension has been recorded in the international register;
- (x) "international application" means an application for international registration or for extension of the protection resulting from an international registration to any contracting party made under the Madrid Protocol;
- (xi) "international bureau" means the international bureau of the world intellectual property organization;

- (xii) "international registration" means the registration of a trade mark in the register of the international bureau effected under the Madrid Protocol;
- (xiii) "Madrid Agreement" means the Madrid Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Marks adopted at Madrid on the 14th day of April, 1891, as subsequently revised and amended;
- (xiv) "Madrid Protocol" means the Protocol relating to the Madrid Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Marks adopted at Madrid on the 27th day of June, 1989, as amended from time to time; and
- (xv) "office of origin" means the office through the intermediary of which the international application is filed in accordance with Article 2(2) of the Madrid Protocol.

92C. Trade Marks Registry to deal with international applications.— An international application shall be dealt with by the Trade Marks Registry or such branch offices of the Registry, as the Organization may specify.

92D. International application originating from Pakistan.—(1) Where an application for registration of a trade mark has been made under section 22 or a trade mark has been registered under section 33, the applicant or the registered proprietor may make an international application on the form prescribed by the Common Regulations for international registration of that trade mark.

(2) A person holding an international registration may make an international application on the form prescribed by the Common Regulations for extension of the protection resulting from such registration to any other contracting party.

(3) An international application under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall designate the contracting parties where the protection resulting from the international registration is required.

(4) The Registrar shall certify in the prescribed manner that the particulars appearing in the international application correspond to the particulars appearing, at the time of the certification, in the application under section 22 or the registration under section 33, and shall indicate the date and number of that application or the date and number of that registration as well as the date and number of the application from which that registration resulted, as the case may be, and shall within the prescribed period, forward the international application to the international bureau for registration, also indicating the date of the international application.

(5) Where at any time before the expiry of a period of five years of an international registration, whether such registration has been transferred to another person or not, the application under section 22 or the registration under section 33, as the case may be, has been withdrawn or cancelled or has expired or has been finally refused in respect of all or some of the goods or services listed in the international registration, the protection resulting from such international registration shall cease to have effect:

Provided that where an appeal is made against the decision of registration and an action requesting for withdrawal of application or an opposition to the application has been initiated before the expiry of the period of five years of an international registration, any final decision resulting into withdrawal, cancellation, expiration or refusal shall be deemed to have taken place before the expiry of five years of the international registration.

(6) The Registrar shall, during the period of five years beginning with the date of international registration, transmit to the international bureau every information referred to in sub-section (5).

(7) The Registrar shall notify the international bureau the cancellation to be effected to an international registration keeping in view the current status of the basic application or the basic registration, as the case may be.

92E. International registrations where Pakistan has been designated.—(1) The Registrar shall, after receipt of a notification from the international bureau about any international registration where Pakistan has been designated, keep a record of the particulars of that international registration in the prescribed manner.

(2) Where, after recording the particulars of any international registration referred to in sub-section (1), the Registrar is satisfied that in the circumstances of the case the protection of trade mark in Pakistan should not be granted or such protection should be granted subject to conditions or limitations or to conditions additional to or different from the conditions or limitations subject to which the international registration has been accepted, he may, after hearing the applicant if he so desires, refuse grant of protection and inform the international bureau in the prescribed manner within eighteen months from the date on which the notification referred to in sub-section (1) was received.

(3) Where the Registrar finds nothing in the particulars of an international registration to refuse grant of protection under sub-section (2), he shall within the prescribed period cause such international registration to be advertised in the prescribed manner.

(4) The provisions of sections 14 to 31 (both inclusive), 82 and 83 shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to an international registration as if such international registration was an application for registration of a trade mark under section 22.

(5) When the protection of an international registration has not been opposed and the time for notice of opposition has expired, the Registrar shall within a period of eighteen months of the receipt of notification under sub-section (1) notify to the international bureau its acceptance of extension of protection of the trade mark under such international registration and, in case the Registrar fails to notify to the international bureau, it shall be deemed that the protection has been extended to the trade mark.

(6) International registration designating Pakistan shall enjoy the right of priority provided for in Article 4 of the Paris Convention and are exempt from the need to comply with the formalities prescribed in section D of that Article.

(7) Where a same registered proprietor of a trade mark makes an international registration of trade mark with all goods or services in the national registration and designates Pakistan, the international registration from the date of the registration shall be deemed to replace the registration held in Pakistan without prejudice to any right acquired under such previously held registration and the Registrar shall, upon request by the applicant, make necessary entry in the register referred to in sub-section (1) of section 6.

(8) A holder of international registration of a trade mark who designates Pakistan and to whom has not been extended protection in Pakistan shall have the same remedy which is available to any person making an application for the registration of a trade mark under section 22 and which has not resulted in registration under section 33.

(9) Where at any time before the expiry of a period of five years of an international registration, whether such registration has been transferred to another person or not, the related basic application or, as the case may be, the basic registration in a contracting party other than Pakistan has been withdrawn or cancelled or has expired or has been finally refused in respect of all or some of the goods or services listed in the international registration, the protection resulting from such international registration in Pakistan shall cease to have effect.

92F. Effects of international registration.—(1) From the date of the international registration of a trade mark where Pakistan has been designated or the date of the recording in the register of the international bureau about the extension of the protection resulting from an international registration of a trade mark to Pakistan, the protection of the trade mark in Pakistan shall be the same as if the trade mark had been registered in Pakistan.

(2) The indication of classes of goods and services given by the applicant shall not bind the Registrar with regard to the determination of the scope of the protection of the trade mark.

92G. Duration and renewal of international registration.—(1) The international registration of a trade mark at the international bureau shall be for a period of ten years and may be renewed for a period of ten years from the expiry of the preceding period.

(2) Subject to payment of a surcharge prescribed by the rules, a grace period of six months shall be allowed for renewal of the international registration.

92H. Transformation.—The date of filing of an application for the registration of a trade mark made to the Registrar in accordance with Article 9 quinquies of the Madrid Protocol shall be the date of the cancelled international registration and, if the international registration enjoyed the right of priority, the application shall enjoy the same priority.

92I. Extracts from the international register.—(1) Extracts from the international register issued by the international bureau shall be exempt from any legalization in Pakistan.

(2) In all legal proceedings relating to a trade mark in an international registration in which Pakistan is a designated contracting party, the fact that a person is recorded as proprietor thereof in the international register shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the international registration of the trade mark and of all subsequent assignments and transmissions thereof.”
