Secretary.
STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The purposed amendments in the Seed Act, 1976 seeks to establish, inter alia, a National Seed Development and Regulatory Authority (the “Authority”), and the Seed Tribunals. For this purpose, the Authority has been equipped with all requisite powers and functions, including, inter alia, legal character as a body corporate, power to employ modern methods, ability to transact with governmental and non-governmental entities, and integration of an effective regulatory regime.

As such, a modern and efficacious legal as well as regulatory framework is envisioned, under the proposed amendments, for effective development, regulation, administration and management of seed, a subject, from end-to-end.

The Ordinance seeks to achieve, inter alia, the aforementioned objectives.
