STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

A Comprehensive reproductive health education - or the many other ways this may be referred to is a curriculum-based process of teaching and learning about the cognitive, emotional, physical and social aspects of reproductive health. It aims to equip the children and young people with knowledge, skills, attitudes and values that empowers them to realize their health, well-being and dignity; develop respectful social relationships; consider how their choices affect their own well-being and that of others; and understand and ensure the protection of their rights throughout their lives.

2. This amendment in the Act aims at provision of aforesaid objectives to enable the students in the decision-making process regarding several issues concerning reproductive health.
